

Dharma Dialogues. We will have Dharma Dialogues (every other Sunday, both online and in-person)

DD's will alternate between Senior Dharma Teachers (Paul, Chris, and John C) and JDPSs (Ann and Eric) and ZM Jeong Ji

SDTs – consulting dialogues only; JDPS/ZM – consulting and/or kong-an training

DD's are always optional; please let the HDT know at the beginning of practice if you do not want one.

In-person teachers will meet with in-person students. Ann psn will meet with online students. Time (and energy) permitting, in-person teachers will meet with online students as is feasible.

Additionally, Eric psn and I have weekly time slots available for online DDs for those that wish to meet with us and haven't been able to do so. (to sign up, go to home page/click on the what's going on side bar on the right. Click on Dharma Dialogue Opportunities)

Presentations/Workshops on our Women Ancestors

We'll begin with the earliest mythological teachers, then move on to Indian, Chinese, and Korean women teachers.

Tuesday evenings: follow-up discussion about current themes/teachers being presented

Daily 7am practice: readings from contemporary women teachers
